Executive Producer behind ‘The Killing’ and ‘Borgen’ new principal at the European Film College

Executive Producer behind Danish TV-series ‘The Killing’ and ‘Borgen’ will be new Principal at the European Film College. Nadia Kløvedal Reich will succeed Mette Damgaard-Sørensen, who is leaving to be the Artistic Director at New Danish Screen.

From September 1st 2014 Nadia Kløvedal Reich will be Principal at the European Film College, which offers one of the world’s best film foundation programs.

Nadia Kløvedal Reich comes from a position as Head of Fiction at the Danish Broadcasting Corporation, where she was one of the driving forces behind massive international hit series such as ‘The Killing’, ‘Borgen’ and ‘The Legacy’. She is looking enthusiastic about her new role:

‘The European Film College is a very special place and the perfect setting for passionate and creative young film talents from all over the world. There is no place like it, and I am so looking forward to working together with the many people connected with the European Film College to further develop the school, both nationally and internationally’.

An expectant and pleased Board Chairman

Board Chairman Lars Hermann, who is also CEO of Copenhagen Film Festivals, is very pleased on behalf of the Board to welcome Nadia Kløvedal Reich as the new Principal:

‘We are delighted that Nadia Kløvedal Reich is joining us to further develop the positive direction of the school. She combines a strong background in management with social and pedagogic insight, and she has an impressive background in TV and film production. It will be very exciting to work with her on the European Film College’s ambition to be the best film foundation course in the world,’ Lars Hermann says.
